Grand Isle, LA

Way down south where the food is great let's meet by the sea in the sun and create. We'll run from the waves and play in the sand with buckets and shovels, to build what we can. Find a few friends who want to attend and reserve your cabin now. I have included the Grand Isle web site on the flyer. You can also spend a day or more if you like. There are fishing charters for hire. There are a few airbnb's on the island and local camps to rent as well as cabins, hotels, suites, and motels. They are all close in proximity since the island is only 1 mile wide and 6 miles long. The closer we get to June the harder it will be to find a place to rent. I suggest reserving your spot ASAP.
